

Home

The sisters of Lambda Theta Alpha Latin Sorority, Inc. would like to welcome you to Michigan State University. As sisters of the First and Largest Latina sorority in the nation, we are dedicated to the continual advancement of the universal women in higher academia.

About Us

Overview – Lambda Theta Alpha Latin Sorority, Inc. was founded as the First Latin Sorority in the nation in December 1975 in Kean University in Union, New Jersey. Our organization was created to cater towards the needs of Latinas and the Universal Women.

Mission - The purpose of Lambda Theta Alpha shall be to provide a sisterhood based on unity, love, and respect. To develop strong leaders who will then provide and practice political, social and cultural activities. Promote unity through charitable and educational programs. Maintain a higher standard of learning and serve as a voice for all students.

Philanthropy – the national philanthropy is St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

Quick Facts –

- Founded at Kean University, NJ in December of 1975.
- Lambda Theta Alpha was the first sorority ever created to cater towards the needs of Latinas in the nation.
- The purpose of the organization is to create a support group for women in higher education and unite the community on campus.
- Lambda Theta Alpha was established as an academic sorority.
- Lambda Theta Alpha is not an exclusionary organization.
- Lambda Theta Alpha has established Alumnae Chapters.
- Lambda Theta Alpha members have a hand sign and traditional call. LTA's do not step, but they do salute and stroll.

Chapter History

Lambda Theta Alpha Latin Sorority Inc. first began as an interest group known as the Interested Ladies of Lambda Theta Alpha Latin Sorority Inc., at Michigan State University in the spring of 2007. The group began with four interested ladies. Of the four original ladies, only two would then become sisters - Aleida Martinez-Flores and Teresa Almanza. Four years later, after dedication, hard work and perseverance, seven ladies founded the Epsilon Pi Chapter at Michigan State University.

Chapter Sisters – Epsilon Pi Chapter Continues to grow with many lovely ladies.

- Founding Line: Spring 2011 – seven ladies
- Line 1: Spring 2012 – eight ladies
- Line 2: Fall 2013 – twelve ladies
- Line 3: Spring 2015 – six ladies
- Line 4: Spring 2016 – nine ladies
- Line 5: Spring 2017 – five ladies

Chapter Philanthropy – Epsilon Pi Chapter Philanthropy is NOW (National Organization for Women)

Scholarship

Apply for the Fall 2017 P.A.L.M.A. Scholarship Now!

History of Scholarship – P.A.L.M.A. stands for Pursuing Academics, Leadership, and Maximizing Awareness; all of which can relate back to the mission of our organization.

The concept of the P.A.L.M.A. scholarship was established during the fall of 2012 by the sisters of Epsilon Pi Chapter of Lambda Theta Alpha Latin Sorority Inc. The sisters felt that there should be a scholarship available to undergraduate student leaders who are in need of financial assistance toward their education at Michigan State University. The scholarship consists of a $250 award and certificate of recognition.

Contact Us

Include social media links with handle.

If you need to contact us fill out the information below:

First Name:

Last Name:

Email Address:

Message:

Interested in Lambda Theta Alpha Latin Sorority

If you would like further information please fill out the information requested above and a sister will contact you.